Artists! Musicians! Creatives of all kinds! The Moot Times is looking for you!

Has the warm summer weather put you in a creative mood? The Moot Times is the perfect place to showcase your talents and celebrate your unique perspective. As an independent, student run publication, the Moot Times is our unique platform to reach out and connect with each other and the greater legal community.

What does life as a law student look like for you?

In past issues, the Moot Times has featured comic strips, curated playlists, and custom cocktails that express the UCalgary law student experience. With a new school year just around the corner, it is the perfect time to flex your creative muscles!

We are currently seeking submissions for our Summer 2022 issue!

If you would like to share your art, contact submissions@themoottimes.com. We would love to see all the creative ways that you express yourselves.
